THIS MONTH'S AD APPEARED IN MEDIA REACHING 10 MILLION PEOPLE NATIONWIDE.

You are so beautiful

Hamas video shows five Israeli women soldiers bound, hands and feet, in a room full of terrorists, one of whom says to a tied-up woman, "You are so beautiful," while another says they are sabaya — "sex slaves" in Arabic. All five women were kidnapped and remain in Gaza.

For Hamas sympathizers, this reality check should be sobering

Dear Friend of Israel, Friend of FLAME:

Recent shocking videos of Hamas's October 7th massacre of innocent women, children and men graphically refute all the deniers of the terrorists' slaughter and bestiality. They also leave viewers in gut-wrenching horror and bitter anger toward the jihadi monsters who appear on screen perpetrating savage cruelty and sexual violence.

Thus, when pro-Hamas demonstrators, progressive lawmakers and several European nations express support for a Palestinian state, we need no longer question what this means. We saw it on October 7th. We see it in the appalling videos. We see it daily on the streets of Arab and other Muslim states.

Let's be clear: A Palestinian state no longer means "two states living side by side in peace and security," as well-meaning liberals, including the Biden administration, have long argued. Hamas makes this lucid in its charter and its rule in Gaza. In fact, it means the ferocious murder of Jews, the destruction of the Jewish state and the rise of an Islamist tyranny led by

YOU DESERVE TO KNOW THE TRUTH...

Stop Terrorism on Campus

Attacks on Israel and Jews on scores of American universities have exploded into a jihadi-fueled, violent revolution against American freedoms and values

While protesters violate school rules, state and federal laws—wasting and destroying campus property, inflicting injuries to Jewish students and physically attacking those who disagree with their hateful ideology—progressive college administrators have failed to stop the assault.

What are the facts?

A nationwide survey of U.S. college campuses have skyrocketed by 300% since Hamas's October 7 massacre in Israel—and they've become more violent. Jewish students have been harassed, banned from entry, and physically attacked by pro-Hamas demonstrators, with incidents of black behavior in 1996. Campus, Scandinavian, while shocked by their hate speech against Black, Muslim and LGBTQ+ students, they refuse to protect Jewish and pro-Israel students.

Moreover, campus demonstrators—and faculty—have become so emboldened they no longer hide their scores for the United States, burning down American flags and replacing them with those of non-existent "Palestine." Finally, they report such civil liberties as freedom of speech, equality under the law and safety of school property and life at risk. Authorities have ignored the lawbreaking.

Jihadi American and genocidal goals inspired by Hamas terror: "by sending pro-Hamas protesters across the nation to glorify jihad, inspire, fund, 'Death to America! Death to Israel!' No return, either, that campus protesters showed their massive resolve and showed attack on Israel recently. Their stated goal is to 'liberate the infidel.' Muslims support Iran proxy Hamas' mission to create an Islamic caliphate, as well as the terrorist group's slaughter of some 1,200 innocent Israeli. Finally, the radical advance: "From the error to the sea, Palestine will be free," a demand the U.S. House of Representatives recently declared to be anti-Semitic—a call for genocide of seven million Israeli Jews.

A revolution of hate that opposes civil liberties and academic freedom: This violent revolutionary movement is rooted in neo-Marxism, which divides the world into oppressor and oppressed. The ideology, which seeks to dismantle American university culture, has inspired both critical race theory (CRT) and Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) policies. It classifies people, organizations and nations into categories of good and evil and according to their loyalty to the oppressed or oppressor. Oppression is subject to de-facto. "If any means necessary"—a slogan used at many anti-Israel protests, campus revolutions and faculty meetings—consider Jews, Israel and the U.S. to be "White" oppressors and therefore subject to violent "resistance," such as burning, rape and setting buildings, attacking Jewish students, and preventing "Gentile" students access to their own campuses.

College administrators have scandalously failed to do

Their behavior is hateful, harmful and often unlawful

1) Congress must increase penalties related to antisemitic and unlawful behavior on campus, on school and revocation of visa for foreign students who participate in antisemitic or unlawful activities.

2) Congress should fund direct legal consequences for failing to stamp out antisemitism. Already Columbia University faces a lawsuit that alleges "outrageous" harassment of Jewish students, who have been punched, shoved, spit on, blocked from attending classes and leaving freely about campus. Dozens of other U.S. colleges face similar federal lawsuits.

3) Donors should withhold gifts from colleges that refuse to act against antisemitism. Many donors have already ceased their giving, including Robert Kraft, CEO of the New England Patriots, who pulled his support from Columbia University due to unchecked law hatred.

4) Donors should fund legal aid for Jewish students at American colleges and universities who are harassed, harmed and often anti-semitic.

5) Donors on campus: If your college is targeted by a hate group, students were directed against any other ethnic or "non-profits" groups on campus, it would not be held for a minute, let alone next month and year. Time to shut down the pipeline.

Hamas wants an Islamist state ruled under Sharia law—one in which women are little more than property, non-Muslims (infidels) are subject to apartheid-like discrimination, and most forms of art, speech and entertainment are restricted or banned. Islamist states are devoid of what we in the West call humanity—tolerance, civil liberties, equality, democracy.

This is the future that pro-Hamas advocates support. We certainly hear none of them denounce these repressive conditions.

Likewise, Hamas doesn't just want to replace Israel with an Islamist state: They tell us clearly that they want a global caliphate in which the world becomes an authoritarian Islamist regime.

Why do our news media speak of "Palestinian resistance," yet ignore Hamas's end goals?

Hamas's quest for a global caliphate begins with the destruction of Israel and its Jewish population—currently around 7.2 million. They say they will do this by repeating the atrocities of October 7th many times over until every Jew, "from the river to the sea," is murdered. Next, they will massacre other "infidels" in the same way ISIS slaughtered non-Muslims during its tyrannical reign over parts of Iraq and Syria. Those who survive will either flee or become second-class citizens, as we've seen in countless Arab countries.

Once Hamas has destroyed Israel, they believe, they and their fellow Islamists will proceed to conquer more territory. What they start in the Middle East they will extend to the rest of the world, including Europe and the United States.

You may have noticed that such "resistance" is already active on Western streets.

Just as ISIS committed savage cruelty to its enemies, so does Hamas heartlessly slaughter

Jews. On October 7th, they methodically murdered hundreds of Jews in cold blood. They raped, tortured, burned and mutilated their victims. Parents were murdered in front of their children and children in front of their parents. Why does Hamas behave so cruelly? Not because Jews oppress Palestinians . . . but because they believe Jews are infidels—vermin deserving neither respect nor human consideration.

In short, if Hamas succeeds against Israel, millions of Jews will be murdered. Steps to isolate Israel, such as pro-Hamas demonstrators, the U.N. and many "progressives" attempt, serve only to hasten a second holocaust. This explains Israel's determination to defeat Hamas—definitively—in all of Gaza, especially today in Rafah.

Neither Hamas, the Palestinian Authority, nor the Palestinian people want peace or a two-state solution. The programs of both Hamas and the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO), which controls the Palestinian Authority, call for the complete destruction of Israel. Hamas rejects two states, and the PLO views creation of a Palestinian state alongside Israel only as a stage towards Israel's total elimination. Furthermore, a December 2023 poll by the Palestinian Center for Policy and Survey Research shows nearly two thirds of Palestinians reject a two-state solution. Other polls show Palestinians' wide support for Hamas's war against Israel.

Why are these facts hidden on CNN, NPR, the New York Times and most all major media?

Hamas's goal: Destroy Israel and create a tyrannical Islamist state—a nation governed by Sharia law and bereft of civil liberties or democracy, as Gaza is today. Women would be subject to a modesty code, requiring they cover themselves from head to toe. Their ability to work or attend school would be restricted, as in other Islamic states. Religious minorities would be attacked violently and rendered second-class citizens subject to periodic pogroms, as in Egypt and other lands. In Afghanistan, but also in Gaza, most forms of recreation—especially where both sexes intermingle, such as music, dancing, sports—are severely restricted if not banned. Attempts to criticize or change the Islamic nature of the state are quickly crushed using arrest, imprisonment, torture, disappearances and extrajudicial killings.

Why have the media failed to expose pro-Hamas demonstrators' and progressive politicians' support of such abhorrent practices in Arab and Muslim countries?

Pro-Hamas forces in the United States openly call for America's destruction. In Dearborn, Michigan, a speaker led a crowd in chants of "Death to America." At the People's Conference for Palestine recently, U.S. Representative Rashida Tlaib attacked President Biden for continuing to “smear” law-breaking campus demonstrators. Finally, the executive director of The People’s Forum, the conference’s chief sponsor—Manolo De Los Santos—called for America’s destruction. “We have to bring down this empire with one million cuts,” he said. “And those one million cuts have to come from every sector of struggle in this room.”

Israel is but the first step to a global Islamist caliphate. Islamists hope victory over Israel will cause a surge of Islamism all over the world. Country after country would fall to radical Islam. European countries that have recently recognized a Palestinian state would themselves seem ripe targets for future Islamist dictatorships.

Please make the point when speaking with family, friends, colleagues—or in letters to the editor—that instead of emboldening Hamas and their fellow Islamists by promoting the creation of a Palestinian state that would surely become a tyrannical Islamist regime, Western countries, especially the U.S., should be supporting Israel in its just war to destroy Hamas and prevent the rise of Islamist tyranny globally.

James Sinkinson, President

Facts and Logic About the Middle East (FLAME)

P.S. The riots, vandalism and illegal trespassing on American college campuses have sharpened the knives of the Israel haters. It’s become clear that the “pro-Palestinian” protesters are purely anti-Israel and support the genocide of Jews “between the river and the sea.” Scandalously, we’ve also seen hard evidence that university administrators are willing to ignore or openly support the antisemitic hate speech and harassment of Jewish students—though they would never permit such behavior against other minorities. I hope you’ll agree that we supporters of Jewish students and hate-free campuses need to speak out. FLAME’s new hasbarah—explanatory message—“Stop Terrorism on Campus”—calls for four actions to eliminate campus outlaws and to restore rights to all students. Please review this convincing, fact-based editorial, which FLAME has scheduled for publication in the Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, New York Post, Chicago Tribune, Tampa Bay Times and Los Angeles Times on July 7. This piece will also be sent to all members of Congress, Vice President Harris and President Biden. If you agree that this kind of public relations effort on Israel’s behalf is critical, I urge you to support us with a donation.
