Hezbollah terrorists lament the death of two more commanders at Israel's hand. While the U.S. admits that killing Hezbollah leader Hassan Nasrallah and other wanted terrorists is a "measure of justice," the White House and Western governments tell Israel to stop winning.

Israel fights global terrorists single-handedly—and wins —yet Biden-Harris say "Stop!"

Dear Friend of Israel, Friend of FLAME:

As Iran's global jihad rages in the Middle East, as well as on America's campuses and streets, the White House seems to stare blankly in its headlights. Meanwhile, Israel, in just a few months, has eliminated the entire leadership hierarchy of Iran's proxies in Gaza and Lebanon, today pressing its advantage by invading Hezbollah's home turf. As former U.S. ambassador to Israel, David Friedman, noted. "Israel has ascended to the leadership position in the world's global fight against terrorism," when it should be the United States leading the fight.

While the U.S. dallies, speaking sanctimoniously about ceasefires, diplomacy and two states, Israel meets the enemy head-on, defeating cowardly violence with superior force. The American administration apparently believes Islamic terrorism can be placated by promises of "regional stability." Unfortunately, Iran doesn't seek stability, it seeks conquest by any means necessary.

Since Israel tops Iran's list of targets for immediate conquest, the Jewish state cannot afford the luxury of America's hopeful, head-in-the-sand approach. It is fighting for its life. Thankfully, Israel is well into defeating two of the most powerful terrorist organizations on Earth— Hamas and Hezbollah.

But not only do Western leaders not express gratitude, they continue to hound Israel bitterly to stop attacking and killing the West's enemies. These timid disciples of diplomacy seem to believe they are closer to peace when terrorists are thriving than when they are destroyed. Yet, the Middle East—and the world—enjoys more security today than two months ago.

THIS MONTH'S AD APPEARED IN MEDIA REACHING 10 MILLION PEOPLE NATIONWIDE.

YOU DESERVE TO KNOW THE TRUTH...

Stop Terrorism on Campus

Attacks on Israel and Jews on scores of American universities have exploded into a jihadi-fueled, violent revolution against American freedoms and values

While protesters violate school rules, state and federal laws... writing and destroying campus property, refusing access to Jewish students and physically attacking those who disagree with their terrorist ideology... grievous college administrators have failed to stop the insanity!

What are the facts?

Anti-Semitic acts on U.S. college campuses have skyrocketed by 70% since Hamas' October 7 massacre in Israel—and they've become more violent. Jewish students have been harassed, harmed from every angle and physically attacked by pro-Hamas demonstrators, reminiscent of Nazi behavior in 1938 Germany. Schoolbuses while schools (often) have speech against Black, Muslim and LGBTQ+ students, they refuse to protect Jewish and pro-Israel students.

Massive campus administrations—and faculty—have become so embroiled, they no longer take their own in the United States, by tearing down American flags and replacing them with those of the extremist "Palestine." Faculty that speak out are threatened as freedom of speech, routinely seized and denied school property and daily risk of life. Institutions have opened the door to anti-Semitism.

Anti-American and genocidal goals inspired by Islamist terror: No wonder pro-Hamas protesters parade the motto of jihad (total warfare), from: "Death to America! Death to Israel!" No surprise, either, that campus protesters cheered each mosque ransacked and drove attack on Israel recently. Their stated goal is to "globalize the intifada." Millions support the pro-Hamas mission to create an Islamist caliphate, as well as the terrorist group's slaughter of some 1,200 innocent Israeli. Finally, the media advocate "Free the river" to the sea, Palestine will be free," a demand the U.S. House of Representatives recently declared to be antisemitic—and the genocide of seven million Israeli Jews.

A revolution of hate that opposes civil liberties and academic freedom: This violent revolutionary movement is rooted in neo-Marxism, which divides the world into oppressor and oppressed. The ideology, which holds dominant American university culture, has inspired both critical race theory (CRT) and Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) policies. It divides people, organizations and nations into a struggle of good and evil according to their allegiance to the oppressed/oppressed axis. Oppressors are subject to defeat "in any means necessary"—a slogan seen at many anti-Israel protests. Campus revolutionaries and their faculty members consider Jews, Israel and the U.S. to be "White" oppressors and therefore subject to violent "resistance"—such as breaking into and setting buildings, attacking Jewish students, and preventing " Zionist" students' access to their own campus.

College administrators have scandalously failed to do their jobs: Their two foremost responsibilities are to protect students' safety and academic freedom. That means zero tolerance for harassment or intimidation of Jewish or any students. It means honoring the search for truth and free expression—and forbidding "cancel culture." Finally, administrators must apply policies fairly. If hate speech or calls for genocide against any ethnic group on campus is not permitted, college administrators cannot allow administrators to call for Israeli destruction.

Four ways Americans can shut down terror on campus. If college administrators who fail to speak violence and hate speech—and fail to protect students' freedom—should be removed. Students who violate school policies on hate speech, harassment, flag desecration, or trespassing should be suspended or expelled. Faculty who do the same—over those with knowledge—should be fired for cause.

Their behavior is hateful, harmful and often unlawful

24 Congress must increase penalties related to antisemitic and unlawful behavior on campus, on schools and revocation of visas for foreign students who participate in antisemitic or unlawful activities.

31 Colleges should face dire legal consequences for failing to stamp out antisemitism. Already Columbia University faces a lawsuit that alleges "wreck the school" harassment of Jewish students, who have been punched, shored, spat on, blocked from attending classes and missing fresh about campus. Dozens of other U.S. colleges face similar federal lawsuits.

41 Dozens should withhold gifts from colleges that refuse to act against antisemitism. Many donors have already canceled their giving, including Robert Kraft, CEO of the New England Patriots, who pulled his support from Columbia University due to its unacknowledged Jew-hatred.

The current behavior of "pro-Palestinian" activists at American colleges and universities is hateful, harmful and too often unlawful—on campuses. If your outrage ignited by Jewish college students were directed against any other ethnic or "oppressed" group on campus, it would not be a national firestorm, it'd cause racist assaults and riots. Time to shut down the intifada.

Tragically, the White House fails to see the value of military prowess in the face of those who aspire to conquer Western civilization. Particularly in the Middle East, it is precisely the nations who fight back fiercely and shrewdly that succeed in causing terrorists to back down.

Western leaders fail to understand the true threat of Islamist terrorism. The West continues to believe falsely that Islamist fanatics think like us—motivated by the good life: Peace, security, upward mobility.

Instead, as the jihadis themselves tell us, they are driven by divinely righteous conquest of Islam over infidels, and ultimately the establishment of a global Islamic caliphate. Israel is just the first target—the West, including America, will be next. Islamists will pay virtually any price to move closer to their goal—including their own people's lives. Osama bin Laden famously glorified this aspiration to martyrdom, saying, "We love death the way you love life." No wonder U.S. negotiators could not persuade Hamas or Hezbollah to accept ceasefires. The diplomats didn't understand that only utter defeat will deter Islamist zealots.

Israel's defeat of terrorist groups like Hamas and Hezbollah improves security in the West. Eliminating terrorist leaders, as Israel did by killing Hezbollah leader Hassan Nasrallah, weakens our mortal enemies as negotiations never will. Even President Biden, who continuously forbids Israeli aggression, admitted the assassination was "a measure of justice." If Israel had obeyed Biden's orders, the world would be a more dangerous place.

In addition, Israel's attacks have demoralized Iran and its proxies. Even Hezbollah admitted that Israel's "pager attack" damaged them and proved the Jewish state's intelligence and technological superiority. Also, after Israel assassinated Nasrallah, Iran's Supreme Leader, Ayatollah Khamenei, was moved to a location with heightened security.

Finally, by inflicting heavy damage on Iran's proxies, Israel is peeling back what the Wall Street Journal calls the "layers of defense" protecting Iran's nuclear weapons. Despite Iran's second massive missile attack on Israel—just last week—Biden meekly says he will not support an Israeli strike against Iran's nuclear sites.

Instead of expressing gratitude for Israel's efforts to fight Islamist terrorism, the West scolds the Jewish state. When Israel killed Nasrallah, German Foreign Minister Annalena Baerbock condemned the assassination, saying, "This action leads to significant instability in the region and does not contribute to Israel's security."

French President Emmanuel Macron also slammed Israel, saying, "Your activity in the north is pushing the region to war." Mr. Macron disregards Hezbollah's 11 months of attacks by 8,000 missiles, which preceded Israel's response.

While Biden did praise Israel's killing of Nasrallah, he immediately negated it, saying, "Ultimately, our aim is to de-escalate the ongoing conflicts in both Gaza and Lebanon through diplomatic means." Mr. Biden's strategy would be more credible if he could point to just a few diplomatic successes in the Middle East during his administration's last four years.

Western leaders believe we are closer to peace when we appease terrorist organizations. Thus, Team Biden-Harris relies strictly on diplomacy to deal with Iran and its proxies—despite zero progress. They tried and failed to resurrect the nuclear deal. Now, Iran is closer than ever to the nuclear threshold. Worse still, the U.S. gave Iran billions of dollars in sanctions relief, which the mullahs used to arm their proxies. The culmination of this "diplomacy only" approach? Hamas's October 7th massacre and Hezbollah's launching a war in Israel's north.

Clarity, determination and military pressure will create a Middle East peace. The devastation that Israel inflicted on Gaza, for example, has led to a sharp decline in Gazans' support for Hamas. Whereas polls showed most Gazans supported Hamas's massacre last December, their support for Hamas's postwar governance sits now at six percent.

German and Japanese public support of their wars also fell dramatically toward World War II's end. Strategic Bombing Surveys found that the percentage of Japanese unwilling to continue the war climbed to more than 60% at the time of surrender, an interval that coincided with the period of heaviest American bombing. Long before Germany's unconditional surrender in May 1945, the German people had ceased to support their war.

Middle East history proves it is strong nations that succeed in eliminating enemy threats. As a result of Israel's use of devastating force against its terrorist foes, Hamas and Hezbollah—formerly at the peak of their power—are now crippled as never before. In contrast, the West's obsession with diplomacy has only strengthened Islamic terrorism.

Please make the point when speaking with family, friends, colleagues—or in letters to the editor—that if Western nations refuse to support Israel's success in defeating Islamic terrorists, the least they could do is step aside and let Israel finish the job.

P.S. The riots, vandalism and illegal trespassing on American college campuses have sharpened the knives of the Israel haters. It's become clear that the "pro-Palestinian" protesters are purely anti-Israel and support the genocide of Jews "between the river and the sea." Scandalously, we've also seen hard evidence that university administrators are willing to ignore or openly support the antisemitic hate speech and harassment of Jewish students—though they would never permit such behavior against other minorities. I hope you'll agree that we supporters of Jewish students and hate-free campuses need to speak out. FLAME's new hasbarah—explanatory message—"Stop Terrorism on Campus"—calls for four actions to eliminate campus outlaws and to restore rights to all students. Please review this convincing, fact-based editorial, which FLAME recently published in the Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, New York Post, Chicago Tribune, Tampa Bay Times, Denver Post and Mercury News. This piece will also be sent to all members of Congress, Vice President Harris and President Biden.
